Frenchtown Residents:

This Draft Master Plan 2016 has been prepared by your Township Planning Commission over the past year. An on-line public survey was conducted last winter with the results used by the Planning Commission.

State Law requires that the draft plan be available for public review and comment. The Public Review period began on October 21st.

The Public is invited to study this Draft Master Plan and make comments at the Public Hearing which is currently scheduled for January 19, 2017, or in writing, before the Public Hearing. Hard copies of the Draft Master Plan are available at these Monroe County Library branches: Vivian, Frenchtown-Dixie, and Bluebush, in their Redi-Reference section, and Ellis at the Reference Desk.

If you make written comments, they should be addressed to

Ignazio Cuccia, Chairman
Frenchtown Charter Township Planning Commission
c/o Frenchtown Charter Township Building Department
2744 Vivian Road
Monroe, Michigan 48162

This Draft, and the current Master Plan (adopted in 2003, amended in 2006, and reviewed in 2011), are both available for your inspection on the township's website: www.frenchtowntownship.org, Building Department section.
